

Project Port Lyttelton

Are you concerned about your energy bill? Would you like to make your home more energy efficient but don't know how to start? Project Port Lyttelton (PPL) is currently looking at ways we can make Lyttelton a more energy efficient place to live. With ever-increasing energy prices and an increasing lack of faith in the reliability of the energy supply this can make financial as well as environmental sense.

Please fill out this short questionnaire so we can judge the level of interest in the community and which areas are of particular interest to residents.
